ANASTASIOS ANTONIOU LLC's Environmental Policy

ANASTASIOS ANTONIOU LLC ('the Firm') is a private company, established and operating in Limassol, Cyprus. It is fully aware that as a business entity, its existence and operation could potentially affect its surrounding environment.

Acting under a wider approach of being a socially responsible corporate citizen, the Firm is committed to do everything in its capacity to protect its surrounding environment and promote sustainable development. As such, the Firm has commissioned the creation of an environmental policy that can realistically address environmental issues entailed by virtue of its operation.

The Firm has developed and implements internal measures that:

- ensure safety and health in its working environment are maintained at the highest possible levels
- conduct its internal operations in as safe and environmentally-friendly ways as possible
- take into consideration all environmental aspects when proceedings in business decisions and agreements
- contribute to the preservation of the environment through the implementation of approved recycling practices
- follow an energy-saving policy with respect to the operation of its premises
- mobilize its Staff towards developing and cultivating environmental sensitivities
- contribute to the work of NGOs engaged with the protection of the environment

The Firm's environmental policy is subject to an annual review and evaluation.
