ANASTASIOS ANTONIOU JOINS EUROPEAN COMPETITION LAWYERS FORUM

Limassol, 14th January, 2011:- Anastasios Antoniou, the Senior Partner of Anastasios Antoniou LLC (“the Firm”), is delighted to have accepted the very honouring invitation to join the European Competition Lawyers Forum.

The European Competition Lawyers Forum (ECLF) is a group of the leading practitioners in competition law from law firms across the European Union. It was founded in 1994 at the suggestion of certain officials within the European Commission's DG Competition to provide a forum for senior practitioners and officials from DG Competition to engage in an open dialogue on the topical competition law issues of the day and to discuss areas for reform.

ECLF meetings allow members and senior Commission officials to exchange views and experiences concerning the application of European competition law. The ECLF, also from time to time, forms working parties on particular issues of interest and submits papers to contribute to the debate on topical issues. Membership is open to all partners in law firms who are expert practitioners in European competition law.

Anastasios looks forward to contributing to the work of the ECLF.
